

---

Attention, G. A. R.

The quarter century of the Grand Army of the Republic, will expire on the 6th day of April, 1891. And in execution of order No 18 from Nat'l headquarters, Geo. P. Foster Post No. 22 will celebrate the event with befitting exercises in Hope, on that day. Every member of the Post is expected to be at the Post room as early as 7 o'clock p. m. As these exercises are not of a secret nature, all citizens are cordially invited to meet with us at a place to be designated by the committee of arrangements, where a program of music, speaking, recitations, etc., will be carried out. Come one, come all, and let us have a good time.

By order of the Post,

A. T. DRAKELEY, Com'd'r.

W. A. WINSLOW, Adj't.

---