

There are three carloads of horses at Gray's stable for sale. Illinois and Minnesota horses.

R. W. Gray, the hardware man, was in the twin cities not long ago laying in a fresh stock of good salable goods.

La Grippe has about ceased his visiting in this vicinity. He gave some of our citizens a hard wrestle.

Bert Warner, of Hope, was here a few days ago to hear some good music by the "C. G. Hartley Band" of this town.

The genial landlord of the "Johnson House," Mr. Jas. Anderson, is going to Casselton to engage in the hotel business there. May you have lots of success, uncle Joe, in your new venture.

Threshers started here a few days ago. This storm will put an end to threshing for some time yet.

Chas. Gray was at Hope a few days since to see how his drill was selling and to call on his friends.

We would like an introduction to the smart people who write notes at the band rehearsals, and sign other peoples name to them. They think they are cute.

Mr. Morteson has purchased a bran new wheel barrow for delivering his feed with. Business must be rushing, Mat.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace have returned from their eastern trip. They visited Iowa, Michigan and New York states and report a pleasant trip.