One of the most pleasant and successful social events that has happened in Page for a long time was the party given by Mrs. Charlie D. Gray and Miss Jessie Barnes at the residence of the former in Page on Tuesday evening, December 6th. There were about sixty present and the evening was spent in various games, social enjoyments, and singing. The whole wound up with an elegant supper which, when your scribe thinks of makes him wish there were more such suppers in this world of sin and sorrow. Everyone knew that Mrs. Gray and Miss Barnes were the best of entertainers but on this occasion they fairly surpassed themselves. All went home voting the party a huge success.
