
B. M. Herry met with a severe accident Wednesday while threshing. The straw carrier of the machine, under which he was at the time, fell, crushing him to the ground, and severely injuring his back and spine. Dr. Philip was sent for who found Mr. Herry suffering great pain, though his back was not broken as it was at first feared.
