

---

—The town was turned up side down Friday night, Oct. 31. The boys by the looks had lots of fun, but acted as gentlemen, they not destroying a single thing, but run all the wagons, plows and buggys, in the neighborhood into the street. That's the proper way to observe hollowe'en.

---