

---

—The railway company have builded substantial new stock yards at this place just opposite the depot. This will prove a great convenience to those bringing in stock to ship. Heretofore the stock had to be herded if brought in before time for loading, causing great inconvenience.

---