

---

—An extra train pulled in Monday evening, bringing twenty-three emptys, and pulled out a few hours later with a full train of loaded wheat cars. Elevators, farmers and everyone wishing to ship grain are having no difficulty whatever now in obtaining all the cars they wish—which is as it should be. The railroad officials have evidently opened their eyes to the very apparent fact that this station is entitled to some consideration if they desire to hold their patronage here.

---