The debating club was well attended last Friday night. The Constitution and By-laws were adopted. The debate, Resolved, "that cotton is more useful to the inhabitants of the U. S. than corn," was decided in favor of the affirmative.

Program for Friday night, Jan. 22nd.

Select Reading, Edith Williams.

Recitation, Josie Hench.

Debate, Resolved, "that savage nations possess no right to the soil." Affirmative Georgia Baker, Mamie Laramore and Mamie Northrop. Negative Fred Lang, Nettie Van Dusen and Guy Jackson.

Select Reading, Georgia Loring.

Recitation, Lou Baker.

The Kindergarten work in the primary room is very interesting. Those interested in school work will do well to devote a half day to visiting the school.

Trang's system of drawing and Loomis's music course, have been introduced into the school.
