
—The public schools re-opened on Monday morning. The cases of scarlet fever, or Scarlatina, on account of which the schools were closed, were very light, and all those afflicted are now getting well, and the most of them are again about the streets.

R
W
J
J
D
V