

---

—And now the dense darkness of our streets is pierced each night by the effulgent glare of street lamps, the town trustees having purchased and had erected five street lamps on Steele avenue and Third street.

---