
The Town Well.

Digging was stopped in the town well yesterday morning, the workmen having gone down to the depth of about 45 feet and struck a strong vein of water. The curbing was sunk yesterday, and it is expected that the pump will be in and everything in order for use on the 4th. It is quite probable that a first class wind mill will be put up to run the pump in the near future.
