

---

—L. A. Jacobson, in his official capacity as village marshal, received four telegrams the first of the week telling him to be on the lookout for four different horse thieves who had within the preceding ten days stolen teams in Cass and Barnes county, between the places of Tower City and Sanborn, on the N. P. railroad. This is getting pretty close home to us, and we would advise people to henceforth keep their barn doors locked.

---