

---

Simon Martinson, who had his leg badly broken by a runaway team, Christmas day, on the Pickett farm, and who was brought to Hope for medical treatment and has since been cared for at Dan Nelson's, has so far recovered as to be out of danger. Dr. Philip thinks the limb will be as good as ever, notwithstanding the bone was badly fractured and a large piece axed out.

---