—Arthur McLaughlin hauled a load of H. T. Hanson's household goods to Mayville last Monday morning, and on the return trip came back by the way of Halton, where he secured a young lady as a passenger for Hope. Our readers will remember that Tuesday was a very dark foggy day, and so, more particularly, will Arthur, for he became lost on the prairie, and after driving over the north end of the county two or three times, brought up at Sherbrooke at about 8 o'clock in the evening, having been driving all day. He reached home at about 10 o'clock that night, says he don't care to repeat the occurrence, even if he did have good company.
