

---

—Messrs. McLean and Spooner opened out their new restaurant last Wednesday, having swung a neat sign in front thereof proclaiming the name of their place of business—"The O. K. Restaurant." We trust that the boys will do well. They have fitted up the rooms neatly and tastily, and are prepared to feed the hungry and furnish chewing gum to the multitudes.

---