

—The great county mass convention of independents is in session to-day at Sherbrooke. We suppose that a great time will be had—that tears of joy will be wept over the conversion of Bro. Hunt and that the fatted calf will be killed in celebration of the event; the Hope Corbet Band will play "Annie Laurie," and Farmer Laucks will tell the assembled multitude of the National Cordage Trust and treat on kindred subjects.

—In a collision on the Dunrobin Down &