

---

—Mr. B. D. Stewart had quite an accident befall him last Saturday. While in the hay mow of his barn a board broke, and he fell to the floor beneath, a distance of nine or ten feet. He was stunned and considerably bruised up, but fortunately no bones were broken.

---