

---

—Just as we go to press we learn that another younger child of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cochran has died of diphtheria, and that Mrs. Cochran is barely alive. Also, that a little child of Albert Cochran died yesterday of the same disease. The disease is in a very malignant form, and, we understand, is called the black diphtheria. All of these children were sick but a short time.

---