

OBITUARY.

Died, at the home of the parents, in Greenview township, May 16th, May, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson.

Death came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson. It took the youngest—little May. She was but little more than a year old. We visited their home. Their friends and neighbors had gathered to comfort the grief stricken parents and perform the last sad rites. The table had been drawn out and on it stood the the casket covered with a white cloth. The minister arose. His voice rang out in the solemn hush as he read the words, "I am the resurrection and the life." After the short but touching service was over the little one was uncovered, revealing the loved form nestled away among flowers and leaves. She had not wasted away and her features wore that peaceful look that one often sees on the face of slumbering childhood.

The funeral train wound its way over hill and through ravine from their home in Greenview township to the banks of the Sheyenne. There they laid her away.

"Safe in the arms of Jesus,
Safe from all sorrow and care,
Safe from the world's temptations,
Sin cannot harm her there."

H. B.