

Two Boys Have Legs Broken.

A very serious accident occurred last Friday afternoon about 4 o'clock whereby two young boys are now laid up with broken legs, Rollin Jaberg and Alfred Carl being the victims. Egbert and Jay Wellman were moving a small building from the rear of Winterer's store through the alley past the Sanborn Hotel and in turning the corner to go north the moving building came in contact with the wooden awning in front of the hotel. The heavy awning fell with a crash, catching a number of men and boys under it who were waiting to get by or were watching the moving of the building. None were seriously hurt, except the two mentioned above.

Rollin Jaberg's right leg was broken near the hip, the bone being fractured in a slanting direction.

Albert Carl's left leg was broken square off about midway between the knee and hip.

At last accounts both boys were doing as well as could be expected.
