

---

Mr. and Mrs. Waltemate and family expected to leave for Palouse, Idaho, this week, but their eldest daughter, Grace, was taken sick, which will delay them some days. Mr. Waltemate expects to engage in the livery business and also run a dray line, and thinks the prospects good. Here's hoping he will find everything to his liking and that his good wife and children will enjoy life in their new home.

---