Chas. Winterer, of the cash store, I slipped on the icy street in Eargo some days ago and dislocate his ankle. He ! is now limping about with the aid of a cane. Mrs. Winterer, who was taken to Fargo where she was operated on for appendicitis, is, we are glad to learn, on the way to recovery.