

It is with sorrow we note the death of Frank Z. Cramer, of Sanborn, who died last Friday morning. Mr. Cramer's boyhood home was in our midst, and his many friends regret that his life should have been cut off just as he was entering its prime. His young widow and infant son have the heart-felt sympathy of their many friends in this vicinity.