

Leonard Larson, who has been in attendance at the Normal at Valley City for some time, is with us again. Leonard has been improving his time quite a bit by increasing his skill in performing on the clarinet. He is exceptionally good for the length of time he has been playing. He plays grade two and three music almost at sight.