

Wimbledon.

Mr. J. M. Collard is reported quite ill.

Ernie Wanner drove to Jamestown Monday.

Mrs. F. F. Furcht suffered a severe lapse Thursday.

Banker Hegge leaves for Minneapolis Thursday morning.

Sanky Newberry and Mrs. Hegge were at Courtenay Friday.

Mr. Watson, the Kensal merchant, was a Wimbledon visitor Monday.

Dr. Pray, of Valley City, made a professional call Sunday evening, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cox and daughter Irene left for Minneapolis Tuesday to be absent until the holidays.

Mrs. W. O. Joos left over the Soo Tuesday morning for a visit with her parents at Fountain City, Wis.

The contract for city water works was given to Noxon Bros. of Valley City, the work to be commenced at once.

News is as scarce in Wimbledon these days as the children on the streets, but we hope to be able to do better next week.

The death of Rosa, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudler, occurred at 4 o'clock p. m. Friday. This is the second death from diphtheria in this family within a week. The oldest daughter is so far recovered as to be pronounced out of danger.