

Happily Wedded.

Cooperstown Courier: At the farm home of her father, Christian Arestad, on Tuesday morning, June 7th, 1898, Miss Lenora Arestad was united in marriage to O. T. Ramsland, of Sacred Heart, Minn., the ceremony being performed by Rev. Nelson Berg, of Audubon, Minn., at 10:30 a. m., in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. After receiving congratulations the bridal party and friends sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner which was served about 1:30 p. m. The bride is one of Griggs county's most popular ladies, and for several years has had charge of one of the departments of our high school. She is well acquainted all over the county and is very much liked and respected by all who know her. The bridegroom is a prominent business man of Sacred Heart, Minn., and is said to be very popular at home. The newly married couple left on the early morning train Wednesday for their Minnesota home, and are followed by the hearty congratulations and best wishes of a large circle of friends. The presents received at the wedding were numerous and beautiful. The Courier joins with all in congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Ramsland.
