

SILVER WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Oppegord Celebrate the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Their Marriage.

Tuesday evening 175 guests assembled at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Oppegord to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. The worthy couple are deservedly among the most popular people in the county and have hosts of friend. And when these friends gathered on this anniversary they brought presents of silver with them.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Nelson's orchestra and dancing was indulged in. A bountiful supper was served at midnight to which all did hearty justice. After supper D. R. Swartwout of Wimbledon made a congratulatory address, which was responded to by Mr. Oppegord, who, during the course of his remarks, mentioned the fact that he had been a resident of Barnes county since 1879, and that he had been prosperous and happy.

Among those who attended the wedding from this city were Hon. N. P. Rasmussen, Christ Nelson and daughter Nettie, Messrs. M. J. Running, Olaf Amundson, T. M. Gunderson and T. Nordlein.
