

THE SMITH-NORTH WEDDING.

A correspondent at Rogers kindly supplies The Times-Record with additional information concerning the marriage of Frank Smith and Miss North, which occurred at Rogers on the 16th inst.

The ceremony occurred at two o'clock. Mrs. A. J. Walker played the wedding march and Rev. Greene, of Valley City, officiated. Dinner was served at three. The bride was dressed in a cream colored albatross and carried bride's roses. The bride's maid, Miss Roby Millet, was dressed in white and carried pink and white carnations. The groom was attired in black. Mr. Alec. Lee acted the part of best man. They will be at home on the A. J. Anderson farm after March 24. A list of the guests and presents are as follows: Mrs. A. E. North, bride's mother, $200 cash; Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Barnes, bedroom suite; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Barnes, Mrs. W. J. Barnes and Mrs. Mary Hood, bookcase and writing desk combined; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Anderson and Mr. Irgens, china dinner set; Mr. and Mrs. N. Larson, rocking chair and silver syrup piteber; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lee and Alec. Lee, carving set; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lamb, silver knives and forks; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Vorhis, silver spoons; Mr. and Mrs. Byron Sweet, fruit knives; Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Stearns and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gieske, glass water set, berry set, center set and salt set; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Booth, Miss Alice Booth, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Wilken-son, table cloth and napkins; Mr. and Mrs. A. Goff Cooperstown, pair towels; Miss Grace Lee, meat fork; Miss Roby Millet, cake plate; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walker, sugar and cream set; Mrs. J. H. High, cake plate; Mr. Gus Becker, silver cake basket; Mr. John Butler, silver bread tray; Mr. F. F. Butler, Hannaford, berry spoon; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanford, bread tray and towels; Irene Walker, nut set; Olina Lamb, pair towels; Marian Vorhis, lunch cloth. A silver spoon tray, butter knife, and berry spoon was sent by some friends who were not present.