

O. S. Knudson, of Dazey, is under Dr. Platon's care as the result of an accident he had last week while grinding a plow point. Several good sized sparks struck him in the right eye, and as they were red hot, the injury is both dangerous and painful. The doctor does not think that Mr. Knudson will lose his eye, but it will be some time before he fully regains its use.