
DEATH OF EDWARD WOOLAND.

Edward Wooland died at the home of his parents, about seven miles southeast of Valley City, last Friday morning. His death was caused by tuberculosis, with which disease he has been suffering for several months. He was twenty-five years of age on the 12th of this month. Mr. Wooland had fitted himself for the profession of teaching and was a graduate of the Normal school, being a member of the class of 1903. He was a young man of good ability and excellent moral character. The funeral was held from the Norwegian-Lutheran church this morning, Rev. Halling officiating, and the interment was in the private cemetery on his father's farm.
