

B. N. Howden received a telephone message from Valley City Saturday, telling of the death of an aged lady, Mrs. Ames, who, with her family were neighbors of Mr. Howden's in the early days. Their home was at the cross roads a half mile west of the Howden farm Mrs Ames was 84 years of age.