

George Howden is Dead

The sad news reached here Thursday evening that George E. Howden passed away at San Haven Thursday morning at six o'clock. His father, B. N. Howden, was summoned to his bedside early this week.

The remains will be brought back Saturday and the funeral will be held at the church in Sutton Sunday at 1:30 p. m. Rev. A. M. Hewson to conduct the service. To allow more time the regular worship at 11 a. m. will be dispensed with.

An obituary will be published next week.
