Richard James Frank Thurlow was born in Glenfield township August 10, 1897, and died at St. John's hospital in Fargo October 18, 1922, his age being 25 years, two months and eight days. There are left to mourn his departure the father, Wm. Thurlow of McHenry, and four brothers and two sisters, namely: John and Edward Thurlow of Sask. Canada, Joseph of Glenfield, Wesley of Courtenay, Mrs. George Allen of Sutton and Mrs. Henry Pitcher of Glenfield. ♦

Frank was well known and liked by everybody around here as he had worked for several local farmers during recent year. He was a member of the Congregational church at McHenry and also of Sutton Lodge No. 147, I. O. O. F.

Funeral services were held at the Congregational church in McHenry October 21, the ceremony at the grave being conducted by the lodge from Sutton.
