

George Allen was very severely injured Monday while cranking his father-in-law's car. The crank which is a detachable one, slipped off of the shaft and and struck him with full force on the upper jaw, cutting through the flesh to the bone. He was taken to Cooperstown where a numbet of stitches were taked in the wound. He is a ble to be out but has a pretty bum looking lip.