

Saturday was a day of many tragedies in this county. Jerry Hogan a farm hand on the F. D. Williams farm, was run over by a wagon loaded with grain. He died in a few hours. Carl Elsaas, north of Cooperstown was kicked on the temple by a horse, his death occurring Sunday. Ernest Johnson, in Kingsley township, has a broken leg as a result of being thrown from a horse. Simeon Johnson of Jessie had his right hand and arm badly injured when it was caught in a separator belt and wheel. Chas Engbretson of Washburn township will probably have to have an eye removed on account of inflammation caused by some foreign matter which got into it. Four miles north of Cooperstown there was a head-on collision between two automobiles. One car was completely ruined.
