

The Fargo papers this week contained news of an automobile accident at Lincoln Nebraska last Saturday, in which C. S. Townley, brother of A. C. Townley was killed and Miss Viola Grasse, formerly of Fargo, was seriously injured. The automobile they were in was struck by a fast train. Miss Grasse was book keeper at the Hammer-Thingelstad store here during the fall and winter 1817-18.