

---

Mrs Oscar Kjelson had the misfortune to fall Monday while working in her kitchen, and break one of her wrists. A doctor was summoned at once and the injury given proper attention. She is getting along very well now, and it is hoped she will soon regain full use of her arm.