

Herbert Miller, who has been temporary section foreman here while John Peters was recovering from his injuries, returned to his home at Tolna, John having resumed his duties as section foreman.