

Dr. C. L. Brimi of Cooperstown died suddenly Monday evening of heart trouble, from which he had been a sufferer for a number of years. He was at home alone when one of the spells came upon him. Going to the nearby home of Geo.
Benson, he asked the latter to accompany him to his office. As they reached the Doctor's office door he remarked, "I am a sick man," and dropped dead. He was a resident of Cooperstown many years and was considered one of the county's leading physicians.
