Eugene Haaland, ten year old son of Swen Haaland, near Hannaford, was dragged to death by a horse Sunday. He was leading the animal home from the pasture and had tied the halter rope round his waist in order to use both hands to open the gate. The horse became frightened and ran away, resulting in the tragedy.