Elizabeth Liebrand was born at Dubuque Iowa September 3, 1855 and died June 20, 1928 at St. Paul, her age being 72 years, ten months and 17 days.

September 15, 1876, she was married to Philip Hafner, their home for many years after being Elma Iowa. Later they moved to Tracy Minnesota, and in 1912 to Sutton where they resided until the death of Mr. Hafner four years ago.

Nine children were born to them, six of them surviving their mother, namely, Mrs. Louise Gosslee, Mrs. Elizabeth Kaechele and Paul Hafner, all of St. Paul; Louis and Charles of Ellendale and William of Washington.

Mrs. Hafner had poor health for many years, her suffering at times being intense, but through it all she maintained a steadfast christian faith, never complain because of the infirmities she had to endure.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Friday, June 22, conducted by Rev. A. M. Hewson. Music was provided by a ladies' quartet composed of Misses Lillian Byington, Verna Anderson, Laura Bailey and Fairy Marrs.

Burial was at Hartman cemetery.
