

J. E. Johnson of Cooperstown, a member of Crane-Johnson Co. died suddenly from a paralytic stroke Monday afternoon. L. V. Thorson, manager of the yard at Sutton was in the Cooperstown office at that time and had conversed with Mr. Johnson only a few seconds before he came. Mr. Johnson was quite old, being in his seventies.