

Obituary

Elliott Leo Lampert, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lampert was born in Belvidere, Illinois, December 21, 1900. Died April 4, 1927, therefore being 26 years 3 months and 14 days old. He came from Belvidere with his parents 14 years ago. He received his education at the Glenfield school. For several years he had been a sufferer from diabetes which prevented him from doing much work although he attempted to do some farming for himself. The funeral, as noted last week, was held April 7 at Glenfield church. He is survived by his entire family home circle.
