
L. I. Rygg is Dead

L. I. Rygg, a former principal of the Sutton school, died this week at his home in Clifford after a lingering illness which started with pleuresy, followed by pneumonia, and then by tuberculosis. While here he seemed to be in exceptionally good health. He was about 25 years old.
