

Miss Scheer An October Bride

From a Fergus Falls paper.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at high noon Thursday, October 6, at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Scheer 411 Broadway, when her daughter, Esther Hazel, became the bride of Chester V. Byington of Fargo.

The ceremony took place in the living room beneath a beautiful arch formed of autumn leaves and flowers. Rev. A. J. Link, of the Ebenezer Evangelical church, read the marriage service.

The bride wore a gown of powder blue Romaine crepe, and carried a shower bouquet of pink Ophelia roses. Her bridesmaid, Lillian Byington, a sister of the groom, wore a gown of tan georgette, and a corsage of white roses. Mr. Byington was attended by the bride's brother Charles Scheer, of Erhard. Miss Rose Scheer, a sister of the bride, of Fargo, played the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" while the wedding party took their places beneath the arch. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Doris Reetz, of Webster S. D., sang "I Love You Truly."

Immediately after the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served. Covers were laid for twenty. Pink rosebuds, and autumn leaves were used in the appointments.

Mr. and Mrs. Byington left by auto for a wedding trip to Minneapolis, Duluth and other points in northern Minnesota. They are to be at home in the Osgood apartments at Fargo after November 15.

Mrs. Byington is a graduate of the Fergus Falls high school. She has been employed at the Otter Tail Power Company for some time, and has a wide circle of friends in this city who wish her happiness. Mr. Byington, a graduate of the Coopers-town high school, is now connected with the J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company, of Fargo. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Byington, parents of the groom, his brother, Kenneth, all from Sutton, N. D.; Miss Ida Scheer, a sister of the bride, of Detroit, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scheer and family of Erhard, Minnesota; Mrs. Wm. Reetz and daughter, Doris, of Webster, South Dakota.
