

Sunday being the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Olsen, a number of their friends and neighbors gave a dinner in their honor in the Lutheran church basement, which was in the nature of a surprise. A large crowd was present in spite of the cold weather, to partake of the fine dinner that had been prepared by the ladies. Before the last course was served, M. E. Hamilton as toastmaster, made a few remarks and then called on J. S. Byington and F. S. Marrs, who offered congratulations to the guests of honor. After a response by both Mr. and Mrs. Olsen, Mr. Hamilton presented them, as a token from their friends, a 26-piece set of handsome silverware. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Simenson, whose anniversary was the same day, were to have been included in the party, but could not come because of the cold weather and bad roads. All in all it was a most enjoyable affair.
