

The forty years ago column in the Cooperstown Sentinel-Courier contained a reprint last week of the wedding of John E. Sutton and Miss Tyla Kingsley, who were married at Cooperstown by Rev. O. D. Purinton Thanksgiving day forty years ago. They moved at once to the farm now owned by them and lived there until they retired about 20 years ago. Mr. Sutton had lived on the place five or six years prior to the wedding.