

The women of the community gave Mrs. Arnold Anderson a parcel shower Tuesday at her home up stairs in the old bank building. The articles presented her were intended to replace those lost when their house burned.