

Mrs. Nettie Anderson of Osage Iowa was in Sutton the first part of this week calling on old friends and neighbors. Her health has been completely restored since leaving here four years ago. She expects to do the cooking this summer for a crew of men who will be employed by Tom Swingen of Cooperstown. Her son Rudolph will join her when school closes.