

While returning home from Cooperstown Saturday night Richard Bailey's car collided with another, but with no great damage to either. He undertook to pass a truck but it speeded up as he drew alongside, and before he could drop back an approaching car appeared in the act of passing and they came together. Mrs. Taylor and Ruth were with him but no one was injured.